Dear Prof. Sudhir Kumar

A

On behalf of Sony, I would like to extend a private invitation to you and your University to participate in the 2022 Sony Research Award Program. This Program is intended to foster partnership with faculty and researchers of universities. This is the seventh year of the Sony Research Award Program and we are pleased to announce that it will support research and innovation in India, the U.S., Canada and select countries in Europe with awards of up to $150,000 USD per year for each accepted proposal.

For more program details please follow the link below:
https://www.sony.com/research-award-program

Do note that the deadline to submit your research proposal is 12:29PM IST (Afternoon) of 16 September, 2022.

If you are interested, please consider submitting proposals to Sony within the scope described on the website following the guidelines.

Please reply to this email to confirm receipt of this invitation from Sony and we look forward to collaborating with you.

Sincerely,

C.C. Lee, Ph.D.
Director (Representative)
Sony Research India
