Dear CRICK Members,

I am pleased to inform you that CSIR-IMTECH is celebrating 'One Week One Lab (OWOL)' program from June 19 to June 24, 2023 under CSIR- One Week One Lab Campaign which was launched by Honourable Minister of State (Independent Charge) for Science and Technology, Dr. Jitendra Singh.

CSIR-IMTECH is organizing week-long events including scientific talk & lectures by distinguished speakers including leaders from various industries, technology show case, JIGYASA- Student-Scientist connect programme, skill development programmes, open day visit for general public, life sciences start up meet, celebration of International Yoga Day and media interaction. This OWOL programme also aims to attract the best of industry leaders, scientists as well as key government policy makers. Our distinguished panel of speakers includes leaders from academia and big corporates in pharma & biotech sectors. Besides establishing new synergies, this event shall help us to develop new networks with eminent researchers across the country and globe.

It is my pleasure to invite you at this OWOL event which is being organized at CSIR-IMTECH campus located in Chandigarh. I believe that your expertise as a scientific and thought leader will attach significant value to the entire event and shape the future research agenda and scientific environment in this country. The aim of OWOL is to ignite the minds of young innovators, students, strengthen the start-up ecosystem, opportunity for academia and industry to look for collaboration and network with the institutes; the participation of each one of you is of utmost importance in making it a success.

I will really appreciate if you can circulate this in your laboratory/Institutes and encourage maximum participation of Staff, students and researchers to attend One Week One Lab event in CSIR-IMTECH from 19th to 24th 2023.

I am really hopeful that you can join us in this endeavor.

With warm regards,

Sanjeev Khosla
